PennPromise Mentors

We've placed ourselves at the heart of the African ecosystem with a unique investment approach. However, we understand that mentors are important to an entrepreneur's success as they can aid decision-making processes, providing valuable connections and interpersonal skills, and teach the "been-there,done-that" lessons to help you avoid mistakes. As we expand our coverage across industries and the African continent, we are looking for more mentors who are passionate about what we do and possess the ability to motivate entrepreneurs.
